MERRIMENT

JUNE 2024

The ACCS Institute for Classical Languages is pleased to announce the inaugural

Tournament of Laurels.

This national event invites classical language students to enjoy four days of competition and merriment at Houston Christian University in June, 2024.

The quest for the Tournament Cup will require individuals and teams to compete in events based on Latin and Greek including reading, oratory, poetry, the fine arts, olympics, et cetera.

Participants are also invited to engage in non-competitive events as we celebrate the fellowship of classical languages.
